

Snapshots

The firm will pay your entry fees – we've set aside £100,000 to support corporate challenges in FY07.

If you're entering a sporting challenge we'll make sure you have the clothing and the kit you need, so you can do your bit to promote the Deloitte brand with pride.

We're determined to help you make Deloitte the number one firm in all fields.

Corporate Challenge

Brain or brawn? There are corporate challenges that test your general knowledge and financial skills, and others that involve real physical endeavours; so start flexing your muscles now.

The Corporate Decathlon, K/AEW Challenge, Challenger World Events, the Vanco Three Peaks Challenge... these are just some of the different events available each year to Deloitte teams.
