acting for the Deed Administrators, which I believe to be true. In making this affidavit, I have reviewed KWM's files in relation to this matter.

- 3 In preparing this affidavit I have had regard to a number of documents which I refer to throughout this affidavit. This bundle of documents is marked "PXRM-1" (Exhibit PXRM-1) and exhibited to this affidavit. A reference to a tab in this affidavit is to a tab in Exhibit PXRM-1, unless otherwise stated.

- 7 At paragraph 16 of the KWM 12 June Letter, KWM indicated it would take steps to provide a copy of the Respondents' Application and the Application (as defined in the KWM 12 June Letter) to each of the creditors who:
- (a) the Deed Administrators are presently aware of who have brought claims against a DOCA Company before or after their appointment; and
  - (b) allege or in the future allege that insurance held by a DOCA Company may be relevant to their claim, regardless of whether they have been granted leave to proceed against a DOCA Company,

Dear Colleagues

We refer to the above matter. We act for the deed administrators of Probuild Constructions (Aust) Pty Ltd (subject to deed of company arrangement).

We are writing to you because your client has an ongoing claim, or has indicated they may have a claim, against a company subject to the deed of company arrangement (DOCA) to which insurance may potentially respond.

Your client should have received the attached circular on 2 June 2023. The circular relates to proceedings to amend the DOCA in the Supreme Court of Queensland brought by a creditor of the company. As foreshadowed in the circular, the deed administrators' application has now been filed, and a copy is attached.

The matter has been listed for a review hearing at 9am on Tuesday 13 June 2023. The substantive hearing is presently listed for 9am on Friday 16 June 2023.

Please let us know if you wish to be heard in relation to these applications, and we will inform the court. If we do not hear from you, we will assume your client does not wish to be heard.

CIRCULAR TO CREDITORS

Dear Sir/Madam,

WBHO Australia Pty Ltd ACN 095 983 681 and certain subsidiaries listed in Appendix A (all Subject to Deed of Company Arrangement) (Probuild Group or Companies)

Application to amend the Deed of Company Arrangement

I refer to our previous correspondence with respect to the voluntary administration of the entities listed in Appendix A and to the execution of the deed of company arrangement on 21 July 2022 (DOCA) in accordance with the resolutions of creditors of the Companies at the second meeting of creditors held on 30 June 2022 (Second Meeting).

The purpose of this circular is to:

- inform creditors that a creditor has filed an application to amend the DOCA, which has been filed in the Supreme Court of Queensland (Court) (DBC Application);
- explain the consequences of the DBC Application for all creditors;
- set out the Deed Administrators' intended response to the DBC Application, including the proposed alternative amendments to the DOCA being proposed by the Deed Administrators (Deed Administrators' Application); and
- seek creditors' views on the competing merits of the DBC Application and the Deed Administrators' Application.

The DBC Application

Background

On 17 March 2023, the deed administrators received correspondence from the solicitors acting on behalf of Destination Brisbane Consortium Integrated Resort Operations Pty Ltd as Trustee for the Destination Brisbane Consortium Integrated Resort Operating Trust QWB Residential Precinct Operations Pty Ltd as Trustee for the QWB Residential Precinct Operations Trust (together DBC), setting out DBC's concerns regarding the operation of the DOCA, and the potential impact the effectuation of the DOCA may have on an historic claim DBC's alleges against PCA (Qld) Pty Ltd (PCQ) arising out of PCQ's works on the Queens Wharf Development in Brisbane in 2020 (DBC Claim).

Deloitte refers to one or more of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited ("DTTL"), its global network of member firms, and their related entities (collectively, the "Deloitte organisation"). DTTL (also referred to as "Deloitte Global") and each of its member firms and related entities are legally separate and independent entities, which cannot obligate or bind each other in respect of third parties. CONFIDENTIAL

The deed administrators are continuing to investigate the DBC Claim, and have sought additional information from DBC to substantiate the DBC Claim.

DBC has expressed concern that, upon effectuation of the DOCA, the DBC Claim may be extinguished and PCQ will be released from the DBC Claim. PCQ is named as the insured under an insurance policy which may respond to indemnify PCQ in full, or partial, satisfaction of the DBC Claim. DBC alleges that if the DOCA effectuates as presently drafted, then DBC will not be able to obtain the proceeds of the insurance. DBC also asserts it was not aware of the second meeting of creditors and would have raised these concerns with the deed administrators.

For the avoidance of doubt, DBC has not submitted a proof of debt, and has deliberately chosen not to do so. DBC was not in attendance, and did not vote at, the second meeting of creditors. Without submitting a proof of debt, DBC would not have been entitled to vote at the second meeting of creditors in any event.

Application filed in the Queensland Supreme Court

In its correspondence, DBC foreshadowed bringing an application in the Supreme Court of Queensland to amend the DOCA. DBC filed an originating application in the Supreme Court of Queensland on 31 March 2023, seeking orders which would have the effect of amending the DOCA to preserve the DBC Claim (Application). A copy of the Application has been provided with this circular at Appendix B.

Despite the deed administrators providing an undertaking which would have provided DBC with two months' notice of the final distributions of the Pool C and D funds being made, DBC filed the Application on an urgent basis, alleging there was a risk of the DOCA effectuating imminently. The deed administrators had hoped to resolve DBC's concerns without the need to litigate. However, the deed administrators were denied the opportunity to do so once DBC filed the Application.

Update as to timing of the effectuation of the DOCA

The deed administrators also wish to advise that on 27 April 2023, they filed an application in the High Court of Australia, seeking leave to appeal and appealing the decision of the NSW Court of Appeal in Allianz Australia Insurance Ltd v Probuild Constructions (Aust) Pty Ltd [2023] NSWCA 56 (Allianz Appeal). The Allianz Appeal concerns a decision as to whether the deed administrators are entitled to a sum of approximately $6.5m which they received as part of a broader settlement agreement in relation to a construction project in Melbourne. At first instance, the deed administrators were successful and were held to be entitled to the full amount. The NSW Court of Appeal overturned this decision and awarded Allianz approximately $6.5m. The deed administrators are now seeking to have this decision overturned.

Given the Allianz Appeal may realise significant assets for the benefit of all creditors, the deed administrators will not effectuate the DOCA until the Allianz Appeal is finally determined, which may be at least 12 months' away.

Notwithstanding the above, the Application has been listed for trial before the Hon Justice Hindman at 9am on 16 June 2023 (Hearing Date).

The deed administrators' position

Attitude to the Application

The deed administrators consider the Application is misconceived.

It is not, and was never, the Deed Administrators' intention to prejudice creditors who have legitimate claims against PCQ or any of the other Companies. The DOCA incorporates section 562 of the Corporations Act (at clause 8.5) and is expressed to preserve claims in respect of insurers at clause 15.3(b).

The Deed Administrators have made the distributions of the Pool A and B funds to the relevant creditors. At present, Effectuation of the DOCA will occur one month after the final distribution of the Pool C and D funds is made to the relevant parties. However, for the reasons outlined above this is unlikely to occur for some time, including by allowing the deed administrators to finalise recoveries, such as the Allianz Appeal.

As was made clear to creditors at the Second Meeting, the intention is for an application to deregister the Companies to be made shortly after the effectuation of the DOCA. Such an application cannot be made where the relevant Company is the subject of any legal proceedings. In any event, the final distribution of the Pool C and D funds will require any outstanding litigation against the Probuild Group to be determined so final distributions can be calculated. Since the DOCA was executed, a number of insured creditors have come forward, however, the deed administrators are confident the majority of these can be resolved within the same timeframe as the outstanding recoveries.

The deed administrators have formed a view that but for insured claim litigation against the DOCA companies (such as the DBC Claim), the DOCA would otherwise likely be able to effectuate by the end of 2024. However, these insured claims will now need to be resolved before effectuation occurs. As such, the deed administrators will incur further costs and expenses associated with keeping the DOCA on foot, and resolving the insured claim litigation (Holding Costs). The Holding Costs will diminish the remaining Pool C and D funds, from which final distributions to creditors will be made. Further, given the uncertainty as to the quantum and duration of the insurance litigation, the deed administrators will not be able to make any further distribution to creditors while they remain liable for the Holding Costs.

This is obviously prejudicial to the interests of those creditors who do not have insured claims and who will see their distributions diminished for the exclusive benefit of the small number of insured creditors. The deed administrators therefore propose an alternative suite of amendments to the DOCA which will better protect the interests of all creditors. The deed administrators propose to file an interlocutory application substantially in the form set out at Appendix C (Deed Administrators' Application). The deed administrators' proposed amendments to the DOCA are set out in the marked-up version of the DOCA which appears at Appendix D (Proposed Amended DOCA). The Proposed Amended DOCA may be further refined before the Deed Administrators' Application is filed, however will be substantially in the form of Appendix D, and will retain the key features set out below.

The Deed Administrators' Application

The key mechanics of the Proposed Amended DOCA are (capitalised terms are as defined in the Proposed Amended DOCA):

- a) defined terms capturing all Insured Claims, not just the DBC Claim;
- b) a Longstop Date, being 21 July 2025, is three years from the date on which the DOCA was executed by the Deed Administrators and the DOCA companies;
- c) a payment mechanism whereby after the Longstop Date, Insured Creditors must fund the Holding Costs in accordance with their rateable share of the total quantum of Insured Claims (as notified by the Deed Administrators);
- d) providing for an Insured Creditor to be deemed to have waived any entitlement to the proceeds of any Applicable Insurance and consenting to discontinuing any proceedings they have against a DOCA company if they do not pay their share of the Holding Costs; and
- e) altering the effectuation mechanism to be triggered by the later of a month after the Final Distribution Date or the Determination Date (being the determination / resolution of all Insured Claims).

The benefits of the Proposed Amended DOCA include the following:

- a) the change to Effectuation will avoid DBC's concerns with the DOCA;
- b) Insured Creditors will have until 21 July 2025 to resolve their Insured Claims before they are liable for the Holding Costs (noting creditors were previously advised the DOCA may remain on foot for 12 months and effectuation was anticipated to occur in July 2023);

- c) if Insured Claims continue beyond the Longstop Date, the remaining creditors will no longer have to bear the Holding Costs (and have their distributions diminished), but the Insured Claims can still be prosecuted; and
- d) the Deed Administrators will be able to pay the remaining DOCA creditors a significant proportion of the anticipated final dividend after the Longstop Date, as Holding Costs will be met by Insured Creditors.

For these reasons, the Deed Administrators consider their Proposed Amended DOCA is a superior alternative to DBC's amendments. The deed administrators' proposal is also in the best interest of all creditors, and consistent with the broader objectives of Part 5.3A of the Corporations Act, including by maximising the return to creditors of the company.

What if no orders are made?

If the Application is unsuccessful, or the deed administrators' amendments are not made, it is likely the Probuild Group will still need to go through a winding-up process after the effectuation of the DOCA or delay effectuation indefinitely until all claims are resolved. This will be necessary to allow the Companies to be deregistered. A winding-up process or indefinite DOCA period will cost further money and will result in smaller returns to creditors.

For this reason, the deed administrators consider creditors should support the Deed Administrators' Application, as set out at Appendix C.

Creditors views

If creditors believe they will be impacted by DBC's proposed amendments to the DOCA (at Appendix B) or the deed administrators' Proposed Amended DOCA (at Appendix D), they are encouraged to email the Deed Administrators at probuild1@deloitte.com.au as soon as possible.

The Deed Administrators will provide the court with a summary of the correspondence received from creditors at the Hearing Date, and provide an update to creditors after the Hearing Date.

Yours faithfully

David Orr

16. Tax

16.1 Interpretation

The Parties agree that:

- (a) except where the context suggests otherwise, terms used in this clause 16 have the meanings given to those terms by the GST Act (as amended from time to time);
- (b) any part of a supply that is treated as a separate supply for GST purposes (including attributing GST payable to tax periods) will be treated as a separate supply for the purposes of this clause 16;
- (c) unless otherwise expressly stated, all consideration to be provided under any other provision of this Deed is exclusive of GST. Any consideration that is specified to be inclusive of GST must not be taken into account in calculating the GST payable in relation to a supply for the purpose of this clause 16;
- (d) a reference to the GST payable by an entity or the input tax credit entitlements of an entity will include a reference to the GST payable or input tax credit entitlements of the representative member of any GST group to which that entity may belong;
- (e) a reference to something done (including a supply made) by a party includes a reference to something done by any entity through which that party acts; and
- (f) if any value added tax, goods and services tax or other similar tax is payable pursuant to a law of another jurisdiction on any supply made under or in connection with this Deed, then the provisions of this clause 16 apply as if references to a word or expression defined in the GST Act were to the corresponding concepts in the law of that other jurisdiction.

16.2 Reimbursements and similar payments

Any reimbursement or similar payment required to be made under this Deed that is calculated by reference to a cost, expense, or other amount paid or incurred will be limited to the total cost, expense or amount less the amount of any input tax credit to which an entity is entitled for the acquisition to which the cost, expense or amount relates plus an amount calculated in accordance with clause 16.3 where applicable.

16.3 GST payable

If GST is payable in relation to a supply made by a party (Supplier) under or in connection with this Deed then the party providing consideration for the supply (Recipient) must pay an additional amount to the Supplier equal to the amount of GST payable in relation to the supply at the same time as the other consideration is to be provided for that supply.

16.4 Tax invoice

The Supplier must issue a valid tax invoice to the Recipient for any taxable supply it makes under this Agreement, except where the Recipient is required to issue the tax invoice.

16.5 Variation to GST payable

If the GST payable in relation to a supply made under or in connection with this Deed varies from the additional amount paid by the Recipient under clause 16.3 then the Supplier must promptly issue an adjustment notice to the Recipient and will provide a corresponding refund or credit to, or will be entitled to receive the amount of that variation from, the Recipient. Any payment, credit or refund under this paragraph is deemed to be a payment, credit or refund of the additional amount payable under clause 16.3.

16.6 Taxation obligations

The Deed Administrators must ensure that the Deed Companies meet all of their taxation obligations as and when they fall due throughout the Deed Period.

Dear Mr Mackenzie,

I no longer act for Owners Corporation 620160U at all. I do not act in either VCAT proceeding BP1236/2021 or VCAT proceeding BP1812/2021 (in both of which claims are made against the person in external administration).

I understand that notices of appearances were filed in those two proceedings by the lawyers acting for Owners Corporation 620160U.

Yours Faithfully,

David Burstyner | Director | Lawyer

Dear Mr Burstyner

We refer to the above matter. We act for the deed administrators of Probuild Constructions (Aust) Pty Ltd (subject to deed of company arrangement).

We are writing to you because your client has an ongoing claim, or has indicated they may have a claim, against a company subject to the deed of company arrangement (DOCA) to which insurance may potentially respond.

Your client should have received the attached circular on 2 June 2023. The circular relates to proceedings to amend the DOCA in the Supreme Court of Queensland brought by a creditor of the company. As foreshadowed in the circular, the deed administrators' application has now been filed, and a copy is attached.

The matter has been listed for a review hearing at 9am on Tuesday 13 June 2023. The substantive hearing is presently listed for 9am on Friday 16 June 2023.

Please let us know if you wish to be heard in relation to these applications, and we will inform the court. If we do not hear from you, we will assume your client does not wish to be heard.

Kind regards
