

You can encounter personal data everywhere and daily. Whether you are the data subject with important rights or the person in charge of the protection of such data, you also have duties to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Through different scenarios happening in the corporate world and in daily life, this e-learning teaches the principles, the processes and the obligations regarding the regulation. At the end of it, you should understand your daily responsibilities regarding the treatment of such data, including with clients. You will be able to apply the best practices about data protection to avoid personal data breach.

1. Introduction

- Platform presentation
- Context and objectives of the GDPR
- Importance of the regulation
- General definitions

2. Concepts, rights & procedures

- Personal data
- Data processing
- Key players
- Data subject rights
- Data protection by design & by default

3. GDPR in practice

- Profiling
- Email & spam
- Personal data breach
- Best practices

4. Knowledge check

- Randomized selection from a pool of questions.

The participants receive an individual certificate once the knowledge check is validated.