

Guidewire Cloud Migration Factory

Guidewire is making substantial investments in research and development to advance its cloud platform, aiming to roll out new features at a frequency of more than three times a year. This accelerated innovation primarily benefits their cloud-based clientele. At the same time, only a portion of these enhancements are selectively extended to on-premise clients, prompting clients to consider an optimal timing for their transition to the cloud.

Why Guidewire Cloud?

Accelerated New Business Throughput

Future Proof Architecture

Lower Costs and Reduced Manual Effort

Accelerated Deployment

Business Flexibility to Configure to Needs

Scalable and efficient data models

Real-Time Integrations

Faster User Ramp-Up

Enhanced governance over regulated financial systems

Reduced re-work and costly remediation

Key challenges clients face when considering a cloud migration?

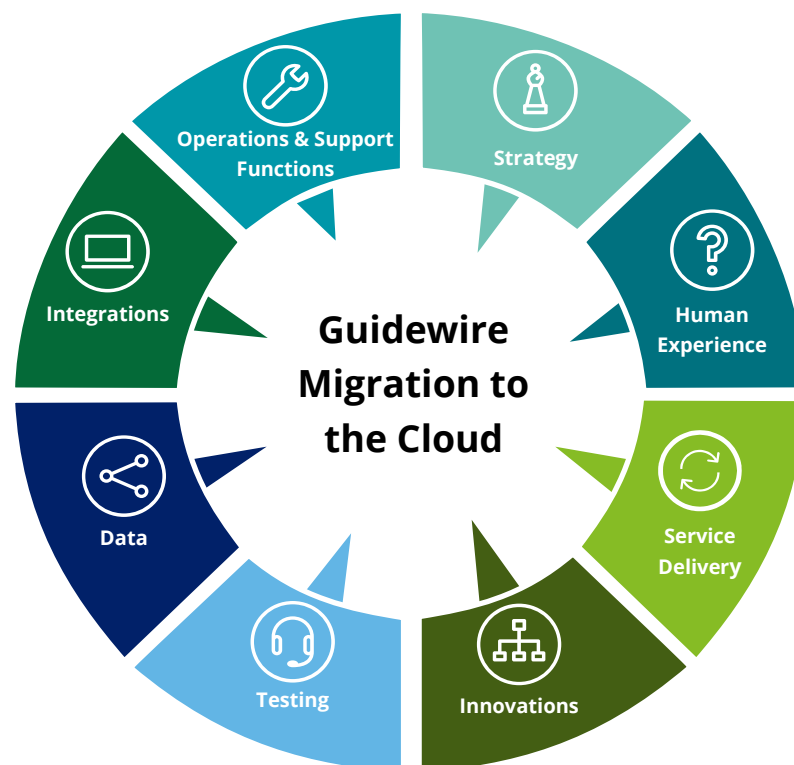

01 High Upfront Investment
Financing is the most common reason for delayed migrations, aggravated by the existing bias of viewing migrations as a technical uplift

02 Business Disruption Risks
Fear a cloud migration undertaking will disrupt the day-to-day operation, further delays the decision

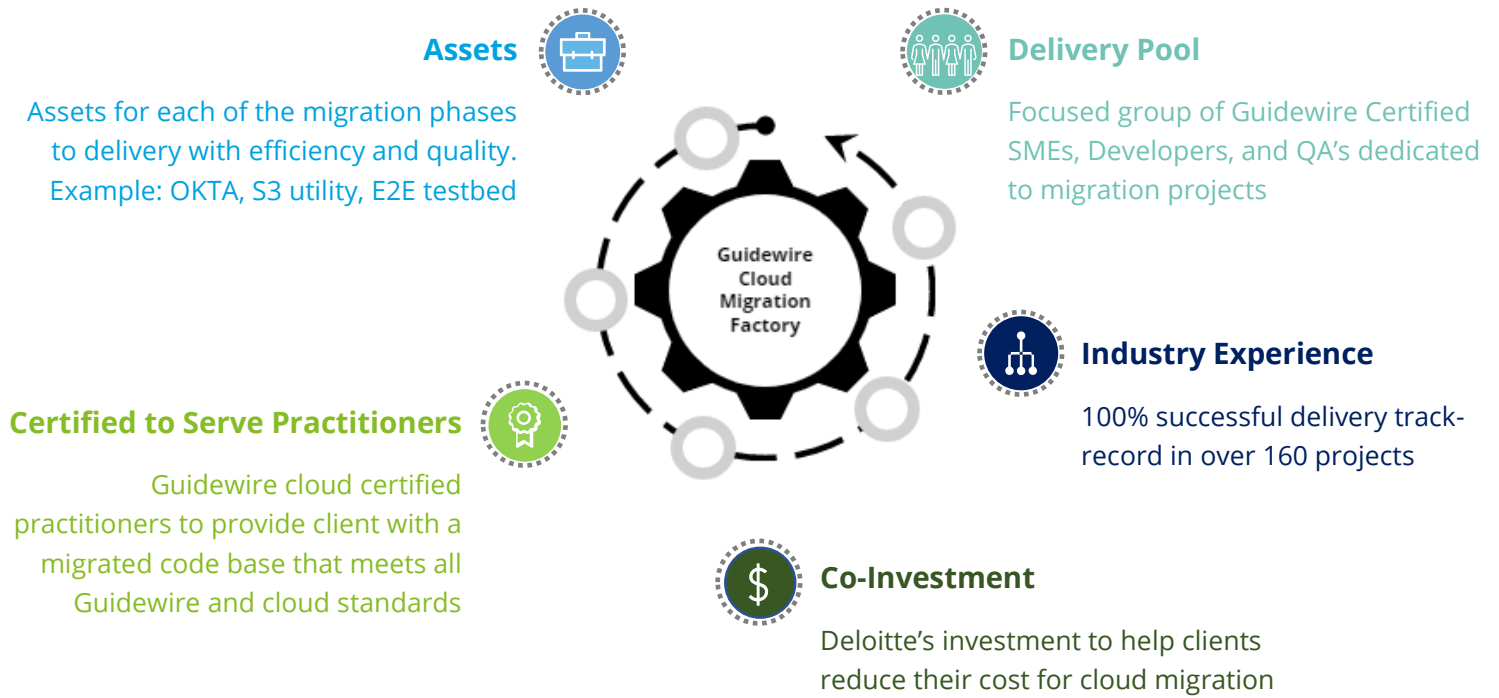

03 First-Mover Risks
Clients are hesitant to buy into Guidewire cloud and work through product challenges

How can Deloitte help?

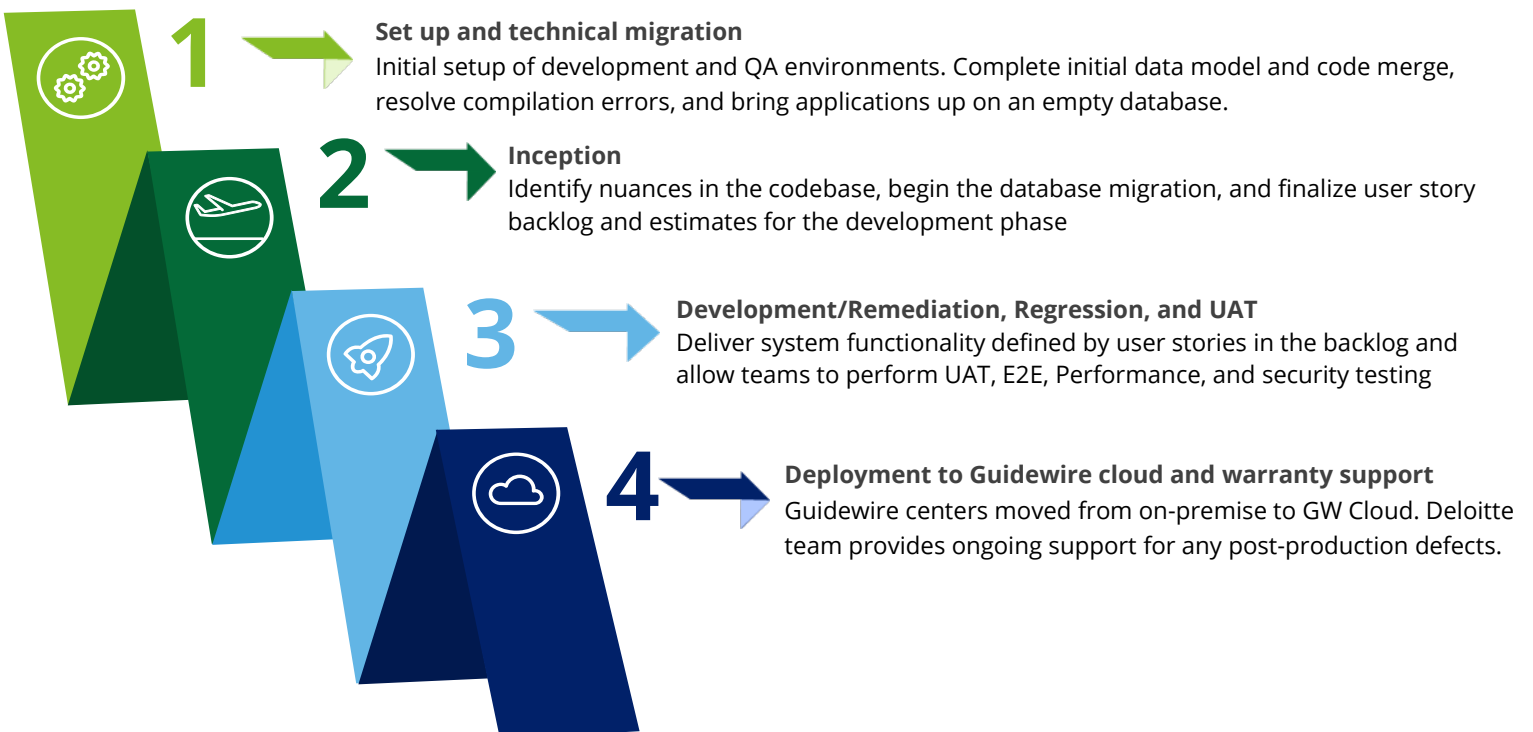

Deloitte can help clients work through the above challenges via firm investments and Deloitte's battle-tested migration factory. The factory combines industrialized processes, proven tools, and experienced, specialized practitioners that help our clients achieve business value and attain speed-to-market with high-quality, cost-effective delivery with minimal business disruption. Deloitte's Guidewire Migration Factory is a proven offering that has successfully delivered multiple migrations in North America.
