The SimplrOps advantage

Deloitte's technical breadth and experience in Workday implementations and operations, paired with our cutting-edge SimplrOps platform, enables organizations to stay ahead in a competitive market.

Automate manual tasks

Say goodbye to spreadsheets and manual configuration reviews. Our detailed, data-driven platform automates and completes tasks in minutes, saving valuable time.

Optimize your configuration

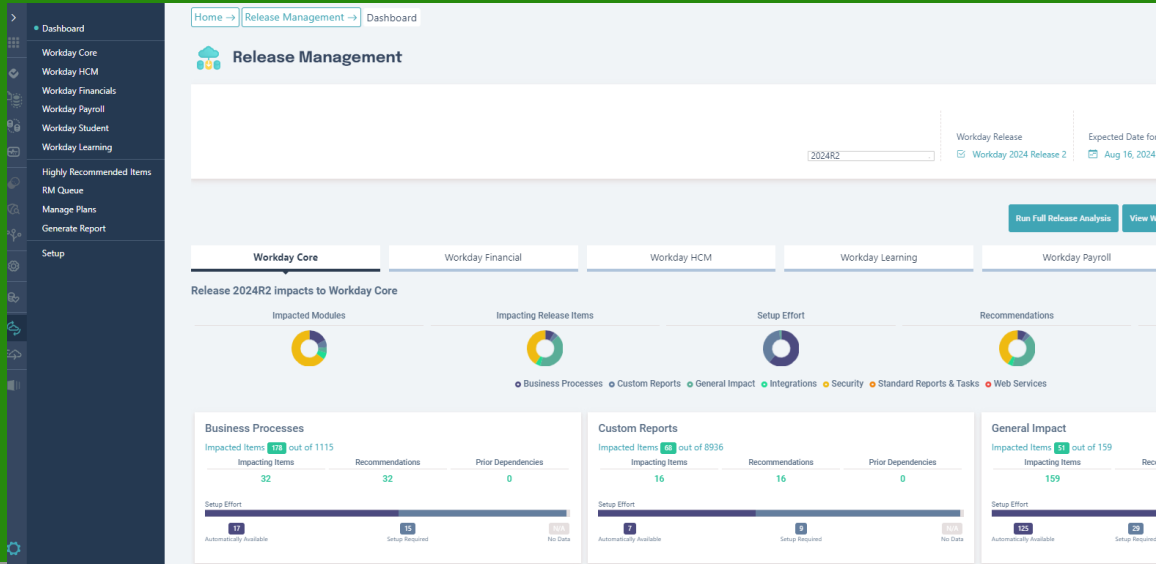

Compare your configurations against Deloitte best practices. We can run health checks against your entire platform to help deliver a world-class experience for your users.

Enable feature adoption

Release management isn't one-size-fits-all. SimplrOps applies Deloitte's perspectives to help inform your decisions on features related to your tenants, including workflow to track the release process.
