Deloitte Global Boardroom Program

Register now for our 18 April discussion on Inflation featuring the former President of the European Central Bank
To the members of the Deloitte Global Boardroom Program:

Threats to the economy remain at the top of the Boardroom agenda. In this issue of the Deloitte Global Boardroom Program newsletter, we remind you to register for our upcoming webinar on 18 April, “Supply, demand and inflation – a deep dive for boards”.

Rana Faroohar will lead a discussion with Curtis Dubay, Chief Economist for the US Chamber of Commerce; Jason Furman, Chairman, Council of Economic Advisers under President Obama; and Jean-Claude Trichet, President of the European Central Bank from 2003 to 2011.

Also included in this newsletter is our compelling webinar schedule through June. Register now so you can reserve these dates on your calendar.

Lastly, we share our latest reports and global insights ranging from human capital, to retail, to digital transformation. Please continue to share these newsletters with your boardroom and C-suite colleagues – we always welcome them as members.

Best wishes,

Dan Konigsburg

Curated Reading from the Best of Deloitte

Global Human Capital Trends 2023

For the past century, we have been governed by a mechanistic view of work. We have assumed that work is fixed and repeatable, readily organized into discrete tasks and grouped into well-defined jobs. Transformation efforts have therefore focused on cost and productivity—how to deliver the same outcomes through faster, more efficient methods. But in recent years, these models have been challenged as organizations and workers grapple with a greater degree of disruption than ever before.

Supply, demand, and inflation – a deep dive for boards

Despite efforts by central banks around the world, higher levels of inflation may be with us for an extended period. What are the implications of this extended period of inflationary pressure – for government budgets, for consumers, for savings and investment, and for companies? Will the impacts look similar from country to country, or will there be regional or country-level differences? For boards, inflation makes long-term strategic planning more challenging, especially assumptions behind investment, pricing and hiring, and much else besides. But will this time of challenge also accelerate other megatrends, such as investment in technology and other innovations?

Lessons from the Boardroom: Driving Outperformance from Digital Transformation

Boards face an increasingly urgent question: How to maintain a competitive advantage in a way that doesn’t just keep up with technology but embraces it to generate new strategic possibilities and increasing returns? The strategic rationale is clear: From competitors with disruptive technology, to pandemics, social unrest, and climate change, how can organizations—and their boards—invest and adapt to drive outperformance? How do leading boards provide oversight of investment in digital transformation to ensure real value generation for shareholders? And what kind of technology expertise do stakeholders expect to see on the Board?

To answer these questions, we will be joined by Teresa Briggs, Board member, Snowflake Inc., DocuSign Inc., ServiceNow Inc., Warby Parker, David G. DeWalt, Board member, Delta Airlines; Founder and Managing Director, NightDragon; Managing Director, AllegisCyber Capital, and Angie Gifford, Vice President EMEA at Meta, Board member, Thyssenkrupp AG, in discussion with Tim Bottke, Deloitte Digital TMT industry leader to learn more.

Thorny topics for the Audit Committee

The audit committee’s work is key to trust, but its agenda is developing fast: What are the thorny topics audit committees are wrestling with? How should boards be thinking about forecasts in this challenging economic and geopolitical environment? How can audit committees make judgements with markets shifting so rapidly? What is the audit committee’s role in driving to net zero? How will the ISSB’s recently announced climate-related disclosure standards affect how audit committees address ESG reporting? How can audit committees manage these with an already full agenda, including broader risk management responsibilities, oversight of cyber defenses, broader internal controls, and an ever-changing regulatory landscape?
Join our distinguished panel, which includes Janine Guillot, former CEO of SASB and former Special Advisor to the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB), Tushar Morzaria, Non-executive director BP plc, Legal & General plc, and Chairman of EMEA Investment Banking at Barclays plc, and Theresa Taylor, Board President, CalPERS, to learn more.

Challenges for Remuneration Committees

This year’s remuneration committee agenda will likely continue to be dominated by topics related to net zero and other ESG matters, including employee well-being. How transparent is executive pay? Are windfall gains included in executive pay? How are remuneration committees balancing the interests of all stakeholders while attracting executive talent? What will be the forward-looking issues for remuneration committees tomorrow?

In this webinar, we’ll joined by Sheri McCoy, Compensation Committee Chair, AstraZeneca, Kimberly Clark; Lead Independent Director, Stryker Corp; Board member, Galderma, Laronde; Chair, Parexel International Corp. She will also be joined by two other panelists.
