Embed responsible practices,
boost compliance, and drive business innovation

Sustainable Supply Chain

Leveraging SAP solutions and other intelligent innovations, Deloitte can help you get a better view of how sustainable your supply chain is—and then take action. Optimize your value chains and work toward “net zero”—and aggregate, integrate, and manage data to support sustainability insights and activities. We can also help you launch circular-economy business models—and continuously embed sustainable practices into operations.

We can help you...

- Design and implement an end-to-end vision for sustainable operations and procurement
- Conduct supply chain due diligence, as well as sustainability audits and scenario modeling
- Navigate the complexities of regulatory and compliance needs, and integrate operational processes across your business—supported by Deloitte’s capabilities at the intersection of HR, procurement, and regulatory compliance
- Design templates for implementation and rollout of SAP solutions, including SAP S/4HANA and SAP-enabled product compliance capabilities
- Transform with confidence, through a complete set of “advise, implement, operate” services—including concept design, SAP technology implementation, and post-go-live support

SAP solutions in focus

- SAP Environment, Health, and Safety Management
- SAP Responsible Design and Production
- SAP Ariba—for supplier risk, supplier lifecycle and performance, and spend analysis
- SAP Logistics Business Network—for material traceability and Green Token by SAP
- SAP Business Integrity Screening
