Cambodia: Responsibility for tax liabilities following business and share transfers and mergers

The Ministry of Economy and Finance has issued a prakas that sets out the rules and procedures for determining responsibility for tax liabilities following business transfers, share transfers, and mergers. The prakas applies to businesses operating in Cambodia under the self-assessment regime.

Germany: BFH rules treaty may preclude domestic law hidden profit distribution adjustment

The federal tax court has ruled that a provision of a bilateral tax treaty incorporating the arm's length principle may preclude hidden profit distribution adjustments based on domestic law. The court discussed the interaction between the arm's length requirements in the tax treaty provision and under domestic law, ultimately remanding the cases back to the lower court to consider all relevant circumstances for treaty purposes.

Greece: Investment aid for strategic defense, vehicle and aircraft manufacturing sectors

The first announcement of an investment aid regime established for the strategic sectors of defense and vehicle and aircraft manufacturing has been published in the official gazette. The aid includes a deduction of eligible expenses increased by 100% (a "super deduction"), subject to certain limitations.

Italy: Pillar Two side-by-side package transposed into domestic law

A legislative decree has been published in the official gazette with the aim, among other things, of transposing the OECD Pillar Two "side-by-side package" into the domestic legal framework. The decree introduces a new provision establishing simplification regimes aligned with the side-by-side package, including the side-by-side safe harbor, ultimate parent entity safe harbor, and substance-based tax incentive safe harbor.

United States: Proposed regulations address OBBBA amendments to section 951 and 951A pro rata share rules

Proposed regulations have been released that address the determination of a US shareholder's pro rata share of a controlled foreign corporation's subpart F income, tested income, or tested loss under certain amendments made pursuant to the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (OBBBA). The proposed regulations also address a transition rule related to certain dividends paid or deemed paid before the OBBBA's pro rata share amendments become effective. Comments and hearing requests are due by 26 October 2026.
