Many enterprise leaders face big decisions about how they will make the move to SAP S/4HANA. Deloitte’s Brownfield+ offering and approach provides a powerful option for organizations that want to define and accelerate their SAP S/4HANA journeys.

Brownfield+ serves as a central source for the services, toolsets, insights, and leading practices for supporting a cost-effective brownfield transformation. It provides an AI/ML driven automated approach, simplifying the journey with flexibility to be tailored for speed and transformation—by leveraging Deloitte’s industry-leading SAP experience, services, proprietary toolsets, and intelligent automation to accelerate your transformation timeline, reduce technical debt, and alleviate concerns about talent and resources.

As an enhanced brownfield approach, Brownfield+ builds on Deloitte’s long-standing assets in this space—allowing you to use cloud, AI, and machine learning to identify the data and processes that matter most to your business and move them effectively to a new SAP S/4HANA environment in the cloud. The result? You can begin realizing the business benefits of a new ERP in potentially a matter of a few months.

Key capabilities:

Brownfield+ allows you to ...

- Assess your existing landscape and get insights that can inform your upgrade path.
- Automate upgrade activities mitigating risk, and driving focus on quality and readiness.
- Prepare your data and business processes for a new SAP S/4HANA environment.
- Realize the business benefits of a new ERP sooner and move quickly to SAP S/4HANA in a matter of potentially a few months.
