CaaS by Deloitte

Focus on business outcomes

We tailor our approach for specific risks in your industry and your unique business goals.

Multi-modal

We have multidisciplinary relationships with our clients and design our managed services around your needs.

Focus on why, what, and how

We focus on the context around why things are happening to emphasise long-term capabilities.

Driven by client success to scale

Our technology, measures, and methods are designed to deliver on significant client achievements.

Traditional MSSP

Focus on technical outcomes

Our technology, measures, and methods are designed to deliver on significant client achievements.

Single modal

We focus on the context around why things are happening to emphasise long-term capabilities.

Emphasis on what and how

A "tools" approach that can leave clients perpetually struggling against cyber adversaries.

Driven by repeatability to scale

Cookie-cutter services and solutions that provide "universal" capability for clients to reduce cost.
