

Terms & Conditions

1. Your Information

- You acknowledge and agree that all information provided by you in the Deloitte Fast 50 Entry Form, or given subsequently as part of the due diligence, interview and judging process (Entry Information) is correct and up to date.
- You confirm that you have the authority to provide the Entry Information on behalf of your Company to us.
- Entry Information requires disclosure of both financial and non-financial information. Deloitte acknowledges that all details disclosed in the Financials section of the Entry Form are provided on a confidential basis. We will only use your financial information to determine your percentage revenue growth as part of establishing the Fast 50 and/or Master of Growth indices. The financial information will not be disclosed or used by Deloitte, except on a confidential need-to-know basis to representatives of Bank of New Zealand (BNZ) for interview and judging purposes related to the Deloitte Fast 50; and in an aggregated form along with other entrants to publicise the Deloitte Fast 50.
- For the purposes of the Deloitte Fast 50 and Master of Growth indices, revenue is intended to reflect genuine trading revenue generated in the ordinary course of business. Entrants acknowledge that Deloitte may review the nature, source and treatment of revenue when determining eligibility, growth calculations and index rankings.
- Subject to the above, the Entry Information will be held by Deloitte and may be used for marketing and publicity purposes. If Personal Information is contained in the Entry Form, our Privacy Policy will apply.
- Information gathered during the entry process will be used to develop insights and trends into the way fast growing companies operate within the New Zealand business environment. Deloitte may publish, present, share or otherwise use such insights and trends for research, promotional, media, educational, reporting and marketing purposes, provided that any information disclosed is aggregated and anonymised.
- As part of entering the Deloitte Fast 50, you give us permission to email/telephone/connect with you regarding the Deloitte Fast 50. We may on occasion update you with news/information and other relevant initiatives relating to SMEs and at any time you may withdraw your consent to receive such communications by contacting nzfast50@deloitte.co.nz or using the designated 'Unsubscribe' link on all email communications.

2. Judging and post-application period

Deloitte reserves the right to:

- Conduct due diligence in relation to your entry up to the point the Fast 50 and Master of Growth indices are announced. In our sole discretion, we reserve the right to disqualify you from entry or placing on the indices based on the results of any due diligence conducted.
- At its sole discretion, to exclude, adjust or reclassify revenue that it considers does not appropriately reflect the underlying trading performance of the entrant, including related-party revenue, passive income, or other revenue that does not align with the purpose and intent of the Deloitte Fast 50 programme. For the avoidance of doubt, related-party revenue may be considered where Deloitte is satisfied that the revenue ultimately reflects genuine trading activity with independent third-party customers. Revenue must be reported consistently across all financial years submitted as part of an entry.
- Amend, vary, extend or discontinue the Deloitte Fast 50 programme and these terms, including how your participation in the Deloitte Fast 50 is publicised, at any time and for any reason.
- Deloitte's decisions and the decisions of the judging panel will be final, and no further correspondence will be entered into.

3. Acknowledgements

By entering the Deloitte Fast 50, you acknowledge and agree that you accept these terms and conditions and:

- You are providing Deloitte with a perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty free and transferable licence to use and reproduce the name of the entrant (including any associated trademark or business name) and any non-financial, non-confidential information, photographs, videos, voice recordings, media coverage or other promotional material relating to the entrant and its directors, shareholders, employees, contractors or consultants participation in the Deloitte Fast 50 programme for marketing purposes. You waive any claims to royalty, right or remuneration for such use (and acknowledge you have the consent of any director, employee, contractor or consultant and authority to accept this waiver).
- Your use and placement of the Deloitte or Deloitte Fast 50 logos on any promotional materials (including any websites) shall be approved by Deloitte prior to the publication of the promotional materials (or website).

Deloitte refers to one or more of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited ("DTTL"), its global network of member firms, and their related entities (collectively, the "Deloitte organisation"). DTTL (also referred to as "Deloitte Global") and each of its member firms and related entities are legally separate and independent entities, which cannot obligate or bind each other in respect of third parties. DTTL and each DTTL member firm and related entity is liable only for its own acts and omissions, and not those of each other. DTTL does not provide services to clients.
