Amendment on the request for the registration number of a juristic person established under foreign law operating a business in Thailand of which such business is not subject to the Lists attached to the Foreign Business Act B.E. 2542

The Department of Business Development, the Ministry of Commerce announced a Notification Re: notification for requesting the registration number of a juristic person established under foreign law operating a business in Thailand of which such business is not subject to the Lists attached to the Foreign Business Act B.E. 2542 B.E. 2564 (Notification). The purposes of this Notification are to amend the procedures for requesting the registration number of a juristic person established under foreign law to be following the Digital Economy and Society Development Plan to transform the government into digital government and to facilitate such juristic person to obtain the registration number for operating a business in Thailand.

The Notification prescribes that the request for the registration number, amendment of information, or cessation of business of the foreigner shall be made by the responsible person of the foreigner or attorney of the responsible person of the foreigner who shall request username and password and verify the identity through the Department of Business Development's website (www.dbd.go.th).

Upon obtaining the username and password and completing the verification process, the responsible person of the foreigner or attorney of the responsible person of the foreigner shall be entitled to proceed with the request for the Department of Business Development's officer to verify and consider the request. Once the Department of Business Development's officer approves the application, they will inform the 13-digit registration number or the result of the amendment through the systems.

The Notification came into effect from 1 July 2021 onwards.
