Chief Tax Officer Program

Where the most influential tax leaders connect, collaborate, and lead change

The role of the Chief Tax Officer has never been more strategic. Amid rapid policy shifts, digital transformation, and increasing scrutiny from boards and regulators, today's tax leaders are expected to shape business direction, not just manage compliance.

The Deloitte Chief Tax Officer (CTxO) Program is an invitation-only network for senior tax executives who want to stay ahead of these shifts and help define what effective tax leadership looks like for the next decade.

Through the CTxO Program, Deloitte provides privileged access to strategic insights, emerging trends, and high-impact connections across industries and markets. Participants engage with peers, policy influencers, and Deloitte leaders to anticipate what is next and strengthen their influence at the highest levels of decision-making.
