

Deloitte Consulting invites you Peromnes[®] 2.0 Classic Job Evaluation Training

We have refreshed Peromnes[®], the familiar factor-based methodology with optimised design and delivery.

It's imperative for grading professionals to keep abreast of best practice, new functionality and improved methodology in job evaluation. In response to the changes and need for training, Deloitte is arranging a series of workshops, lead by Certified Job Evaluation Facilitators to focus on end-user knowledge transfer.

Course Content

- New Peromnes[®] 2.0 Classic methodology
- Job Evaluation system navigation
- Comprehensive descriptions and scoring guidelines
- 8 modules, 2-hour learning sprints over 10 days.

- The program is designed for Managers, Senior Managers, Human Resource Professionals and Executives, as well as other professionals engaged in the job evaluation process.

The training is available from 22 June 2020. Workshop dates will be arranged for group bookings.

Training will be facilitated in a virtual environment using the latest technology and interactive methods. This is a blend of virtual, independent and classroom learning.

Launch special:
