

Family Office Services

Tax, Legal and reporting in a one-hand - Deloitte as link between family, company and private wealth

Focus on what matters.

Due to the growing complexity of the legal and tax environment, administrative work increases, making it more difficult for family offices to focus on their core competences.

At the same time, the risk of (expensive) mistakes increases with the growing complexity of the environment. Hence, there is the need to outsource certain activities to external partners and service providers.

We understand ourselves as reliable experts and as your partner for all tax, legal and reporting duties in order to eventually professionalize the family office. This also ensures to fulfill all legal and tax obligations both nationally and internationally.
