SAF-T legislation is now adopted

SAF-T in Bulgaria

On 21 March 2025 the legislation for SAF-T reporting was officially adopted with the amendments to the Tax and social security procedural code. The adopted legislation repeats without changes the draft law previously published on 18 February 2025. The text is to be promulgated in the official State Journal and enter into force within the upcoming days. The obligation for SAF-T reporting will be phased during several years starting as of 2026 with large enterprises and gradually onboarding medium and small enterprises and ending with micro enterprises in 2030. The timeline for the first wave of obliged entities is as follows:

	March 2025 – legislation adoption
	Jan 2026 – first monthly reporting period for large enterprises meeting certain criteria
	14 Feb 2026 – deadline to file the first monthly reporting file for Jan 2026
	30 June 2027 – deadline to file the first annual reporting file re assets

The reporting obligation arises in the following order:

- January 1, 2026 for large enterprises with 2023 net sales over 300 million BGN or tax contributions exceeding 3.5 million BGN.
- January 1, 2027 for large, medium, or small enterprises with 2024 net sales over 300 million BGN or tax contributions exceeding 3.5 million BGN.
- January 1, 2028 for large, medium, or small enterprises with 2025 net sales over 15 million BGN or tax contributions exceeding 1.5 million BGN.
- January 1, 2029 for large, medium, or small enterprises as of December 31, 2026.
- January 1, 2030 for other enterprises.

The structure of SAF-T schema and specific guidance will be published on a later stage, but it will be divided in the following sections:

What should be reported ? Company data, GL Entries & AP & AR, sales and purchase invoices – monthly by 14th of the following month Fixed assets – annually by 30 June of the following year Inventory – on demand
