Facilitator

Antigoni Marinou

Antigoni Marinou is the founder of a boutique training and coaching house in Cyprus, The Rokket Project. Antigoni has been a Trainer, a Keynote Speaker and a Career Coach for the last 13 years. She started it all while simultaneously running a €30M private banking operation at the largest bank on the island while previously being the Business Development Manager of a Group of Companies listed in the stock exchange and working for a Big 4 audit firm.

She is a Fellow Chartered Accountant, a Certified Career Development Facilitator, a Certified Trainer and holds Master and Bachelor's degrees of renowned Universities in the UK.

Her academic and professional record do not however grant her proof of what she does when she enters a Seminar room with people or decides to work with clients for Career Coaching. The 1250 professionals placed in the market by her company, the 500+ seminars at hand with more than 7.000 people trained by her and her team coupled with the A* reviews at hand, can say a lot about the quality and actionable content in her seminars.

With a true passion for tangible results and a strong work ethic towards delivering value to every single person separately have granted her collaboration with the much prestigious Ministry of Finance, Ministry of Defense, Ministry of Health, The Cyprus Police Academy & Fire College as well as organisations in the Insurance & Finance Industry, the Tourism & Leisure Industry and many more noteworthy organisation is Cyprus & Middle East.

She loves transposing seemingly theoretical notions into tangible takeaway tools and she does it while making people enjoy every minute of it.
