Brexit – VAT and Customs

Description

Four and a half years after the Brexit referendum, the EU and UK finalised a new Trade & Cooperation Agreement on Christmas Eve. The deal provides businesses with much needed certainty and clarity regarding the legal framework for trade with the UK from 2021 onwards. The Agreement has been provisionally applied since 1 January 2021. While tariffs and quotas on goods trade were generally (and mercifully) avoided, new customs procedures are in force.

This webinar on Brexit will brief you on the VAT and Customs implications triggered following Brexit and how these affect your business.
