Further extensions announced for Corporate and Personal Income Tax Returns

On 25 and 30 October 2024, the Council of Ministers approved the following extensions:

- Corporate Income Tax Returns for tax year 2022 and 2023 (TD4)

For taxpayers that have related party transactions as defined in Section 33 of the Income Tax Law and who have an obligation to file a Summary Information Table (SIT), the deadline for the electronic submission of their respective TD4 has been extended to:

- 28th February 2025 for tax year 2022 and
- 30th November 2025 for tax year 2023

The relevant announcement (currently only available in Greek) can be found on the Cyprus Tax Department website.

- Personal Income Tax Returns for tax year 2023 (TD1)

The deadline for the electronic submission of the 2023 TD1 for employees, pensioners and self-employed persons who do not prepare audited financial statements has been extended to:

- 30th November 2024

The deadline for the payment of the final tax due through self-assessment for the tax year 2023 is also extended until 30 November 2024.

The relevant announcement (currently only available in Greek) can be found on the Cyprus Tax Department website.

How can we help?

We remain at your disposal to assist you in meeting the above deadlines.
