

Industrial and intellectual property law Czech Republic

Our legal services

- We will identify your company's intellectual property rights
- We will design the protection of industrial property rights where appropriate or necessary
- We will protect intellectual property created by employees or other persons by identifying existing risks and designing appropriate solutions
- We will prepare licensing and sub-licensing agreements for industrial property rights and register them with the relevant patent offices
- We will prepare agreements on the transfer of industrial property rights and register them with patent offices
- We will register national and international trademarks and/or European Union trademarks
- We will file oppositions against the registration of trademarks
- We will negotiate with collective administrators of copyrights and rights for the payment of royalties and
- We will carry out due diligence covering your company's intellectual and industrial property rights, in particular to streamline their management or properly value your company

Contact:

Hana Gawlasová
Partner | Attorney at Law
+420 778 543 578
hgawlasova@deloittece.com

More information

