

Cyber Incident Readiness, Response, and Recovery (CIR3)

Cyber Incident Response

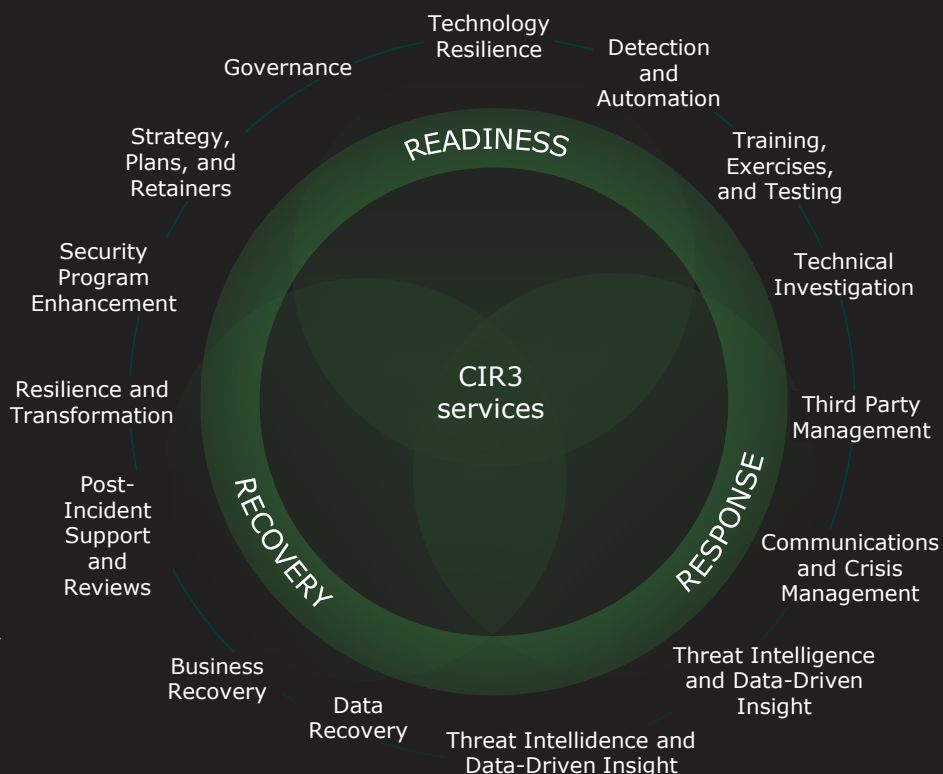

Embed trust across your customers, businesses, and partners with Deloitte’s CIR3. In a converged set of globally positioned capabilities, we help you prepare for, respond to, and recover from cybersecurity incidents with confidence, safeguarding your data, systems, and reputation at speed and scale. Our deep industry knowledge, market-leading technology, global reach, and award-winning network of incident readiness, response, and recovery professionals mean you can better manage and emerge from an incident more resilient than before.

Cyber Incident Readiness, Response, and Recovery (CIR3) Services.

Incident Readiness: Define your cyber incident strategy, assess and remediate weaknesses, exercise/train your organization, and adopt advanced technologies to enable your organization to respond to and recover from cyber incidents.

Incident Response: Quickly deploy cross functional teams with proven incident response capabilities to investigate and contain the breach, manage third-party activities, support communication, media, and legal strategies, and provide end-to-end services to get back to business fast.

Incident Recovery: Manage your recovery by focusing on mission critical services, optimizing longer term recovery across the enterprise, and building broader organizational resilience. These efforts will reduce legal, brand, customer, and regulatory impacts, while strengthening your organization against future threats.

Building trust.
Seizing the advantage.

Cyber Incident Readiness, Response, and Recovery (CIR3)

Cyber incident resilience: Integrate readiness, response, and recovery activities seamlessly into your business framework, elevating protection and preparedness. This leads to quicker response, faster recovery, and reduced business impact. Mitigate enterprise risk and financial and operational impact to enhance confidence in your business and brand with stakeholders.
