Georgian Legal News Refer to the Law

New Law on Entrepreneurs

On 2 August 2021, the new Law on Entrepreneurs passed its third reading in the Parliament of Georgia. It enters into force on 1 January 2022.

The main objectives of the Law is to rectify deficiencies in existing regulation and bring Georgian corporate regulation closer to the regulation of the European Union in line with the EU–Georgia Association Agreement.

The Law covers various issues, including conflict of interest, obligation of good faith, exclusion/withdrawal of shareholders from enterprises, provisions related to reorganizing and liquidating enterprises, and other significant amendments/additions. Notably, the Law introduces dispositive norms, according to which the subjects of entrepreneurial relations will be able to properly regulate their corporate affairs.

The new Law also triggered changes to 25 other laws of Georgia, which will likewise become effective on 1 January 2022.

Order No. 07 and Order No. 08 of the State Inspector's Service of Georgia

On 23 July 2021, the State Inspector adopted Order No. 07 "On Transfer of Personal Data to Third Countries and Other International Organizations," thereby approving two important issues:

- the rules for obtaining permission to transfer personal data to third countries and international organizations; and
- the form of the application for obtaining such permission.

Order No. 07 pertains to the transfer of personal data to third countries and international organization in cases when obtaining permission from the State Inspector is mandated by the Law on Personal Data Protection.

The Order does not pertain to the transfer of personal data to countries officially listed as having appropriate data protection guarantees.

Order No. 07 became effective on 26 July 2021.

On 6 August 2021, the State Inspector adopted the new Order No. 08 "On Approving Inspections of the Lawfulness of Data Processing." Order No. 08 governs the rules, objectives, and basic principles of examinations of data processing practice and inspections of the lawfulness of data processing.

Order No. 08 enters into force on 15 September 2021.
