

16th Art & Finance Conference

22 October 2024 | Luxembourg

Delphine Munro

Head of Arts & Culture, European Investment Bank & Chair of the Board of IACCCA & Member of the Jury for the Art Museum Award, honouring the social role played by museums

Delphine Munro joined the European Investment Bank Group in 2005. After a spell as Head of Marketing Communications at the European Investment Fund, she became Head of Arts and Culture at the EIB in 2009.

In this capacity, she is responsible for developing and implementing the EIB Institute's Arts and Culture programme. This includes the day-to-day management and enrichment of the art collection, the commissioning of in situ artworks for the Bank's buildings, the implementation of a mentoring programme and artists residencies and the development of staff engagement activities.

Delphine Munro has a dual background: in economics and finance (Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris - Sciences Po) and art history (Courtauld Institute of Art, London).

Delphine Munro is President of the Board of Casino Luxembourg - Forum d'Art Contemporain.

She is a President of the Board of IACCCA (International Association of Corporate Contemporary Art Collections).

She is a member of the Board of Les Amis des Musées Luxembourg and of Lët'z Arles.

Delphine Munro is President of the Fondation Jacqueline Noël (since 2022).

She is regularly called upon to sit on international juries.

She was named Chevalier de l'ordre des Arts et des Lettres in France in 2018.
