

Niccolò Filippo Veneri Savoia

Founder & Chief Executive Officer, Look Lateral
President at DEXX.finance

Niccolò Filippo Veneri Savoia began his career in Mantua at the Veneri-Previdi law firm before transitioning into publishing, where he achieved international success with the family magazine "Look Lateral," winning the FPO award and distributing in over 50 countries. Building on this success, he moved to Seattle to democratize art investments, transforming Look Lateral into a pioneering start-up that integrates expertise in art investment with artificial intelligence and blockchain technology.

Since 2016, he has been deeply involved in fintech and blockchain development. Expanding from art and finance, he leveraged the tech-legal infrastructure of dextr.finance to broaden his focus to alternative assets and finance.

An expert in fintech, digital securities, tokenization, liquidity pools, blockchain applications, and startup investment rounds, Niccolò Filippo Veneri Savoia is committed to pushing the boundaries of innovation in these fields.

16th Art & Finance Conference

22 October 2024 | Luxembourg