

Migrate and modernise your way, with Deloitte's Azure cloud services

From on-premises systems, to private and public clouds, to edge environments, Deloitte can help you orchestrate your organisation's cloud journey, masterfully.

As with most organisations, your enterprise likely has some data and applications on-premises, and it might make sense to keep them that way for security, cost, or latency reasons. At the same time, using a cloud-first approach can help you realise breakthrough results and impact. Deloitte's business-led, application-focused approach allows us to deliver agile, hybrid Azure cloud solutions – giving you the portability and visibility you need to run workloads seamlessly and safely across core, cloud, and edge environments.

Deloitte's Azure Capabilities:

Azure hybrid cloud solutions

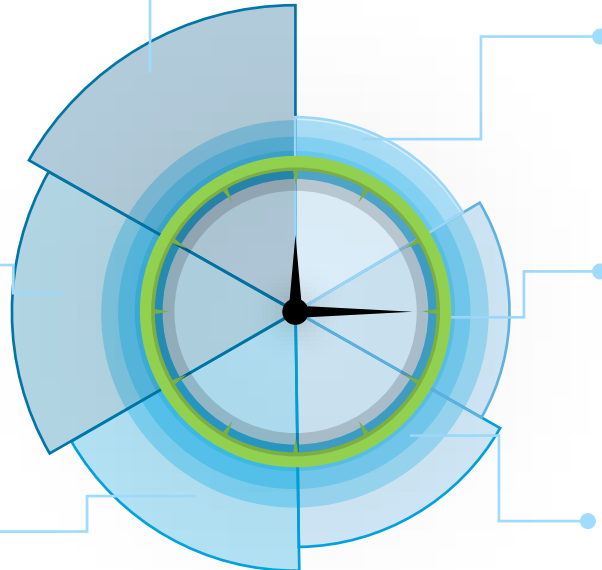

Pre-defined architecture, best practices, and use cases for Azure Stack Hub, Azure VMWare services and Azure Edge scenarios.

Experienced talent with extensive cloud skills

Our people, methodologies, and tools help ensure that your business outcomes guide the decisions of how hybrid cloud will help you transform holistically.

Speed and agility balanced with cost considerations

You have the flexibility to preserve legacy investments where it makes sense and to scale faster with cloud resources.

Solutions to network latency

Application deployment patterns introduce latency into your network traffic – addressing protocol switching, shared network resources / bandwidth, inefficient routing, and distance between locations.

Reduced cloud complexity

We help you determine where data, applications, and workloads reside; connecting multiple instances of cloud with on premises IT and managing various cloud providers.

Advanced security

Deloitte's cyber capabilities can design and manage your Azure Edge Zones, connected by industry standard IoT security protocols or Azure Sphere, a secured, high level application platform with built in communication and security features for IoT devices and device management.

It all starts with strategy

After a thorough consultation and comprehensive objective analysis, we can help you shape your strategy incorporating architecture, risk, and security concerns to ensure you'll get the most from your Azure cloud investment and can realise its benefits as quickly as possible. Then we develop a deployment model customised to your needs and the goals you're trying to achieve. You get the hybrid cloud that's right for you.

A platform for innovation

Regardless of where your data and apps live, it's likely you'll need to transform your IT ecosystem across people, process, and technology to make innovation a reality. Our Azure hybrid cloud services help you to embrace DevOps with key requirements built in, to benefit from multi-disciplinary capabilities, and to leverage relationships with technology ecosystem players. Ultimately, your hybrid cloud infrastructure and architecture become drivers of continuous innovation and value while you accelerate new possibilities and realise business outcomes.
