Unlocking Deloitte's Industry-focused Approach

The Deloitte and Google Cloud alliance delivers pre-eminent analysis, perspectives, and insights tailored to your sector, leveraging Deloitte's IndustryAdvantage™ framework. These insights can help you recognize opportunities, capture value, and create new markets. Our relevant, timely, and sustainable solutions are designed for strategic use cases within specific industries. Layer additional capabilities on top of these innovative solutions to forge the future and achieve faster, more reliable business outcomes tailored to the unique challenges of your industry.

Retail and Consumer

Retail and consumer industries are experiencing unprecedented change. To help deliver outsized business value and lead in a hyper-competitive, increasingly digital marketplace, the key is to accelerate innovation, deliver unique capabilities, and provide distinctive customer experiences.

Financial Services

Our connected world is upending expectations of financial services providers and unseating traditional players. To remain competitive, you need a confidant who can guide your journey to the forefront of financial innovation, enabling you to provide unique services and memorable experiences on a global scale.

Government and Public Sector

Our expectations of governments and of the public sector are rising. Meeting rising public sector expectations requires significant innovation, utilizing digital technology, to provide bold, cost-efficient services with bright ideas that improve lives and foster thriving communities.

Health Care and Life Sciences

It's harder than ever to deliver top-notch patient-centered care. To adapt to a world increasingly disrupted by technology, implement the latest care pathways, help transform patient experiences, and deliver the best possible outcomes, you need to be innovative.

Technology, Media, and Entertainment

The rapid pace of technological change is acutely felt in tech, media, and entertainment. Where latest streaming tech is quickly obsolete and consumers demand greater bandwidth, better experiences, and more personalization, innovation is imperative.

Energy, Resources and Industrials

The energy, resources, and industrial sectors face significant social and regulatory challenges, including sustainability concerns, shifting public opinion, and turbulent markets. Addressing these requires technology and impeccable business insight to help you innovate and reinvent.

Google Cloud Specializations

Deloitte is a Google Cloud Services Premier Partner, as well as a Technology Partner, and has been awarded with Specializations for demonstrating industry-leading competencies to help clients. A Google Cloud Specialization indicates the strongest signal of proficiency and experience with Google Cloud.
