

AI insights driven by all your business data

Enterprise transformations are difficult. Imagine if you could...

"Building a functional data catalog across all of our sources is extremely complex and a potential data quality risk"

Harmonize data by unifying your SAP and non-SAP data sets all governed by a single platform at a lower cost

"I want to democratize insights, but creating and maintaining dashboards for so many users is challenging and expensive"

Accelerate business decisions with self-service, AI-powered insights grounded in your own business data

"We are already migrating to S/4, but we are struggling to innovate with our current analytics capabilities"

Unleash innovation by enabling your workforce at the heart of your organization with safe and robust AI capabilities

The SAP Business Data Cloud & Databricks collaboration helps transform your existing data sources into powerful, real-world results and can empower your business to do more with AI
