MOVE BEYOND CONVENTIONAL OUTSOURCING

Forget one-size-fits-all operating models. The nature of managed services is changing, with Generative AI (GenAI) taking on incident response and other transactional work. That leaves more time to resolve complex matters, focus on enhancements, and maximize your ROI.

With Operate for Workday, you get a tailored set of flexible services that let you run your business with greater agility and control. Through the Deloitte experience that includes leading-edge technology, automation, and data insights, embed continuous advantage that helps you maximize untapped opportunities again and again.

Manage change along the HR, Finance and Supply Chain journey

Converging forces are changing the shape of business in real time.

46%

of leaders say limited skills, capacity, or ability of the technology function is a constraint in delivering value¹

50%

of businesses say maintenance and ongoing support after go-live is a key barrier to technology scaling initiatives²

59%

of executives and C-suite leaders are highly interested in GenAI, but access in the workforce remains limited³

Deloitte helps turn these forces into solutions that help address:

- Talent scarcity and development
- Adoption resistance
- Lack of actionable insights
- Unrealized technology investment
- Inefficient business processes
- Poor employee experience

Discover the Deloitte difference

TECHNOLOGY

Proprietary tools, automation, and AI reduce manual effort and boost quality.

OUTCOMES

Delivery methods are tied to outcomes rather than resources.

TALENT

Deloitte Operate's certified Workday practitioners are dedicated to post-implementation ongoing support.

PERSPECTIVE

Collaborative ecosystem relationships and depth of cloud knowledge influence Workday product roadmaps.

GUIDANCE

Advisers across the HR and finance value chain, tax, cyber, and global mobility help to enable innovation as you operate.

INCIDENT REDUCTION

Focus on automation, education, and system enhancements can help drive down the number of support tickets.

ENHANCE THE QUALITY AND SPEED OF DELIVERY

Using real-time insights, tenant analysis, and optimization recommendations, these Deloitte tools protect your Workday investment now and in the future.

SIMPLROPS

SimplrOps monitors data health and identifies optimizations for your Workday platform. The tool can highlight significant impacts from new feature functionality and report on them via PDF or Excel file. SimplrOps also enables regression test planning with a detailed readout of impacted changes by module, level of effort estimation, and complexity.

WORKDAY PULSE

Workday Pulse mitigates data and system concerns by improving the quality of the tenant data. It also provides real-time information on process performance, configuration, and failures. Together, these functionalities can reduce manual effort by as much as 30%.
