

The Entrepreneur Summit presented by Deloitte Private

May 12, 2026 | Omni Downtown Dallas | Dallas, TX

Join us for the 2026 Entrepreneur Summit, to be held at the Omni Downtown Dallas. You'll be in good company with more than 1,000 private business owners, leading investor groups, senior executives, industry specialists, and middle-market M&A professionals from around the world.

The focus: Learning and networking

The Entrepreneur Summit offers privately held businesses an opportunity to engage in one-on-one meetings with more than 200 investor groups—including private equity firms, family offices, pension funds, and sovereign wealth funds. These investor groups collectively focus on all industries and investment types and, in aggregate, own thousands of portfolio companies and manage trillions in global assets.

Attendees will have an opportunity to learn more about the private equity alternative and receive specific insights from professional investors, finding the Entrepreneur Summit to be a valuable learning and networking experience.

All investor groups execute a non-disclosure agreement as part of the registration process that precludes them from contacting companies after the conference without a specific invitation to do so. Deloitte will collect detailed post-conference feedback from the investor groups based on every meeting they attend and coordinate appropriate follow-up dialogue.

Event highlights

- One-on-one meetings between attending companies and relevant investor groups
- Panel discussions to answer questions around many key issues currently affecting M&A activity and the capital markets
- In-person networking opportunities throughout the Summit
- Chris Barton, founder of Shazam, will deliver the 2026 keynote address
