The Superintendency of Tax Administration (SAT) announced through its official channels that December 24, 25, 26, and 31, 2025, and January 1, 2026, will be granted to its employees with paid leave, which implies the closure of its administrative offices and tax agencies.

For the purposes of calculating business days for filing administrative appeals and other documents based on tax, customs, and administrative legislation, we recommend considering the aforementioned dates as non-business days.
