Paid leave granted to civil servants on Friday 16 September 2022

On 13 September 2022, Government Agreement No. 233-2022 of the Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare was published in the official gazette, which grants civil servants working at centralized and decentralized public administration entities paid leave on Friday, 16 September 2022, in commemoration of the Independence Day of Guatemala.

This paid leave is not applicable to those civil servants that in compliance with their Collective Bargaining Agreement enjoy such paid leave on a different day, nor those who provide essential public services or that have scheduled activities that cannot be postponed.

Due to the above, 16 September 2022 shall be considered as a non-business day for purposes of calculating the terms that must be observed within the public administration.

16 September 2022 is a non-business day for the Tax Administration

In accordance with Government Agreement No. 233-2022 of the Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare, today, Wednesday, 14 September, the Tax Administration published Resolution Number SAT-DSI-1259-2022 in the official gazette, through which it grants paid leave to all of its employees on Friday, 16 September 2022, in commemoration of the Independence Day of Guatemala. Likewise, it declares that this date is a non-business day for purposes of calculating the terms established in the tax and customs legislation.

This resolution went into effect immediately upon its publication in the official gazette.
